[About]

[Biography]

APOCALIPSE forged his musical identity early on in the parisian rave scene, where he began electrifying crowds with his raw energy. His style is dark, intense, and uncompromising a heavy, fast, and punchy sound built for sweat and trembling walls.

Founder of the collective La Piratech and Furi Techno, he continues to defend a free, powerful, and visceral form of music, constantly seeking new stages to overturn and audiences to ignite.

His presence leaves no one indifferent.
